Fabrics are a reservoir for bacteria and have been found to contribute to outbreaks of A. baumannii.

VRE can survive on polyester for up to 90 days.

Bacteria like MRSA can survive on fabrics for more than 1 month.

Bacteria like VRE can be transferred to and from fabric, cushions and people.

Clothing and linens can contribute to MRSA outbreaks.

60% of clinician uniforms are contaminated with potentially infectious bacteria.

VRE can be transferred to and from fabric, cushions and people.

Fabrics are a reservoir for bacteria and have been found to contribute to A. baumannii outbreaks.

The Hard Facts on Soft Surfaces